Dear Noel Hupprich:

Subject: Environmental Determination, File Number SEP12-01257

The City has completed its environmental review of your application and has issued a Mitigated Determination of Nonsignificance for the proposed project (attached).

In accordance with local ordinance, the determination will be published in the Seattle Times on November 20, 2012.

Should you wish to appeal the SEPA and road concurrency determination, a written appeal must be submitted to the City by 5:00 p.m. November 29, 2012. The appeal should include a concise statement of the matter being appealed, the specific components or aspects being appealed, the rationale for contention on appeal, and a statement of standing to appeal. The fee for appealing the Environmental Determination is $209.69.

Should you have any questions regarding this letter, please contact me at 425.587.3255, and refer to File Number SEP12-01257.

Sincerely,

PLANNING AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT
